

YERME Program

(01 August 2012)

The main features of the YERME Day 2013 programme are finally in place and may go into the website soon. YERME Day will start on February 5th with "Arrival and registration at 13:30", following by an "Opening Session at 14:30". It will end at February 6th by 12:00.

The Program is the following:

Tuesday, February 5th, 2013

- 13:30-14:30 Arrival and registration
- 14:30-14:45 Opening session
- 14:45-15:15 Presentation "The experience of doing a PhD thesis" (by a young researcher)
- 15.15-16:30 Working Groups - Part I
- WG1 - "Design of a research study: what are the component parts, how are they related to each other and how might they be discussed in a thesis?" - Barbara Jaworski
 - WG2 - "The role of theory for empirical research" - Susanne Prediger
 - WG3 - "Discourse analysis" -- João Pedro da Ponte
- 16:30-17:00 Coffee break
- 17:00-18:15 Working Groups: Part II
- 18:15-19:15 Special session – Current and future activities of YERME -- Coordinated by Susanne Schnell
- (For example, addressing the idea of having YESS every year, reflecting on the structure of YERME DAY, reflecting about the participating of Young Researchers in CERME and thinking in other activities for Young Researchers)
- 19:30 Dinner

Wednesday, February 6th, 2013

- 08:30-09:45 Discussion Group: Part I
- DG1 - "Literature Search in Mathematics Education & Overview of Mathematics Education Journals and their Reviewing Processes" -- Uffe Thomas Jankvist and Mario Sanchéz
 - DG2 - "Designing tasks for students and for mathematics teachers" -- Dina Tirosh and Pessia Tsamir
 - DG3 - "Reading and writing of reports and papers" -- Paolo Boero
- 09:45-10:15 Coffee break
- 10:15-11:30 Discussion Group: Part II
- 11:30-12:00 Presentation of YERME Summer School, YESS 7 (which will take place in Germany in 2014) and Closing session